TRIFECTA TEAM PR:

Due to the fact of circumstances, time, and pleasure, it gives me such a wonderful opportunity to introduce a determined and charismatic person such as myself, Zekia L. Santiago. I attend Florida State University where I will major in Sports Management. I have a true love for sports, as I am a prior student athlete. I have played volleyball, lacrosse, and flag football on the varsity level as well. I have great knowledge in many areas of sports, including Olympic, Professional, and Collegiate. I have had various volleyball coaching positions as well as a volleyball manager position at Florida State University. I am very interested in sports marketing and advertising on the professional level. I should be the candidate selected for this position because I am very determined, sports marketing minded, and I will exceed your expectations. Most importantly, I will help expand your product is ways unimaginable. It would be a great pleasure to be selected for this amazing opportunity, so that I can broaden my horizons in my future sports career. I would love the opportunity to join your internship team, so that I can contribute my professionalism and dedication.

Sincerely Yours,

Zekia L. Santiago
